Music Business

Ontario Graduate Certificate

Program Code: MB511

Campus: Lakeshore, Online

Length: 3 semesters

Humber's Music Business graduate certificate program is offered twice per year, allowing you to select the delivery that best suits you.

The summer accelerated program begins in early May with in-class sessions ending in late August. From late August to late December, you can complete the program in one semester.

Or you may opt for the traditional September through May delivery, with your field placement from May to August. However you decide, you will complete the program in two semesters.

The Music Business program prepares you for employment in numerous areas of the music industry, offering a unique combination of theory and practice.

International Students: please email lola.nelson@humber.ca to find out if this program is right for you.

Students will participate in a mandatory field experience in their final semester of study. Students are supported in finding their field placement.
