

Print Friendly Version - Humber College

Skip to content

Back to Program Page

Print

Print/PDF Help

Share

Professional Writing and Communications

Ontario Graduate Certificate

Program Code: PW511

Campus: Lakeshore

Length: 3 semesters

Humber's Professional Writing and Communications graduate certificate program supports you as you learn and practise the craft of writing.

With a focus on writing for different audiences and purposes (including editing writing by Indigenous writers and about Indigenous topics), the program provides you with the skills and knowledge to succeed in a variety of careers.

This program allows you to find a community of writers and supports collaboration, networking, professional development and more.

Students complete a twelve-week field experience allowing them to gain valuable practical and professional skills.

Courses

Semester 1

PWRT 5000:

PWRT 5002:

PWRT 5003:

PWRT 5004:

PWRT 5005:

PWRT 5505:

Semester 2

PWRT 5001:

PWRT 5500:

PWRT 5501:

PWRT 5502:

PWRT 5504:

PWRT 5506:

Semester 3

PWRT 5900:

Admission Requirements

Admission selection is based on the following 4 requirements:

. Academic

To be eligible for admission, you must possess the following:

A bachelor's degree

Mature Applicants

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a mature applicant if they have not completed secondary school or other postsecondary school, and will be at least 19 years of age at the time of admission.

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a mature applicant if they have not completed secondary school or attended postsecondary studies, and will be at least 19 years of age at the time of admission.

College Transfer Applicants

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a college transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a college-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a college-level credential.

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a college transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a college-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a college-level credential.

University Transfer Applicants

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a university transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a university-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a university-level credential.

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a university transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a university-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a university-level credential.

. English Language Proficiency

All applicants whose first language is not English must meet Humber's English Language Proficiency Policy.

. International Credit Evaluation

Canadian citizens or permanent residents with international education are required to provide a credential evaluation. Note, for international students, a letter of intent is also required.

. Letter of Intent

Please submit a one-page letter of intent (350 words) outlining your interest in this field of study. Your letter should express why you are interested in this program and how you plan to use the skills you will learn.

Submission Instructions

<https://humber.ca/admissions/office-of-the-registrar/registration/submission-instructions.html>

How to Apply

Applications are made through ontariocolleges.ca. See program page for details.

International Academic Equivalency