

Print Friendly Version - Humber College

Skip to content

Back to Program Page

Print

Print/PDF Help

Share

Inclusive Resource Practice - Child and Family

Ontario Graduate Certificate

Program Code: IR511

Campus: North

Length: 2 semesters

Humber's Inclusive Resource Practice - Child and Family graduate certificate is the only program of its kind in Ontario. It is unique

The program prepares you to collaborate with a community of professionals, individuals and families to navigate a range of services

apply the principles of person-centred practice engage in responsive inclusive planning implement a variety of tools and techniques that support holistic development navigate systems for continuity of service participate in research on a sector-related topic of interest to the learner transfer inclusive practice knowledge to community partners

This program is offered via a hybrid format with in-person learning, synchronous and asynchronous online learning, and a work-integrated

Field experiences are pre-arranged by Humber at host agencies on behalf of the student. They are scheduled two days per week

Field experiences position students to integrate theory and practice by working with industry professionals who provide services to

Field experiences may include a combination professional roles working with individuals within community-based and government

Courses

Semester 1

ECAS 5002:

ECAS 5003:

ECAS 5004:

ECAS 5005:

ECAS 5008:

ECAS 5016:

Semester 2

ECAS 5500:

ECAS 5501:

ECAS 5502:

ECAS 5503:

ECAS 5507:

ECAS 5509:

Admission Requirements

Admission selection is based on the following 4 requirements:

. Academic

To be eligible for admission, you must possess the following:

An Early Childhood Education (ECE) diploma or degree or a diploma or degree in a related discipline such as psychology or family studies

Mature Applicants

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a mature applicant if they have not completed secondary school or other postsecondary school, and will be 19 years of age or older at the time of admission

Degrees

An applicant is considered a mature applicant if they have not completed secondary school or attended postsecondary studies, and will be 19 years of age or older at the time of admission

College Transfer Applicants

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a college transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a college-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a college-level credential towards the graduate certificate

Degrees

An applicant is considered a college transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a college-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a college-level credential towards the graduate certificate

University Transfer Applicants

Diplomas and Certificates

An applicant is considered a university transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a university-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a university-level credential towards the graduate certificate

Degrees

An applicant is considered a university transfer applicant if they have completed some or all of a university-level credential. Humber may accept up to 60 credits from a university-level credential towards the graduate certificate

. English Language Proficiency

All applicants whose first language is not English must meet Humber's English Language Proficiency Policy.

. International Credit Evaluation

Canadian citizens or permanent residents with international education are required to provide a credential evaluation. Note, for international students, a credential evaluation is required for all degrees and diplomas

Resume and Cover Letter