Paralegal

Ontario Graduate Certificate

Program Code: PL511

Campus: North

Length: 3 semesters

Humber's Paralegal graduate certificate program prepares you for an exciting career in the legal field. You will gain skills in legal research, writing, and advocacy.

Courses include tort and contract law, residential landlord and tenant law, employment law, small claims court, provincial offences, and legal ethics.

This program prepares you for a career where you will primarily be involved in representing clients, using your advocacy skills at court and in negotiations.

Students will start the program in either September or January, and normally are expected to complete the program in three consecutive semesters.

Course learning is reinforced through participation in a mandatory, unpaid, 240-hour field experience in the third term.
